About the Funding Information Network

McPherson County Community Foundation is a Funding Information Network partner of the Foundation Center (<http://foundationcenter.org>)

As a member of this nationwide network of libraries, community foundations and other nonprofit agencies, the Foundation provides free public access to grantmaker directories, Foundation Center's electronic database called Foundation Directory Online, and books on fundraising and nonprofit management. The fully searchable database includes detailed profiles of all active U.S. foundations, as well as an extensive file on recent grants awarded by the nation's top funders.

How does it Help?

- Research potential funders
- Learn to write successful proposals
- Find detailed profiles for foundations and corporate givers
- Explore topics related to philanthropy, volunteerism and fundraising

Foundation Grants to Individuals Online A Funding Database

Looking for a scholarship, fellowship, or award? Foundation Grants to Individuals Online is built specifically for students, artists, researchers, and individuals like you!

As a Funding Information Network partner, McPherson County Community Foundation provides local access to the Foundation Center's core print resources and the Foundation Directory Online database—focusing on grant sources available to individuals.

Find Foundation support for your education with:

- Profiles of nearly 10,000 grantmakers.
- Details on funders that provide scholarships, fellowships, grants, and a wide range of financial support to individuals.
- A topical resource list of publications and websites to help you.
- Application information, giving programs and limitations, financial data, and much more.
- Free and inexpensive webinars and tutorials on how to search for funding, how to apply, and how to prepare for college.
